Donation of and/or purchase of a stud service creates a binding contract between the stud dog owner and the bitch owner. The PSLRA nor any of its members are NOT responsible in any event for any accident, breach of contract, or other incident arising by or between the buyer, the seller, or any other persons with respect to the stud service auction or any aspect thereof.

By signing and obtaining a bidder number you hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Puget Sound Labrador Retriever Association (PSLRA), its agents and members, from any and all liability, loss, damage, expense, causes of action, suits, claims or judgments to the above signed or other persons or property resulting from or arising out of the participation of this stud service auction. PSLRA does not endorse one stud dog over another.

PSLRA Code of Ethics states that dogs should not be bred until they have final OFA clearances. If you are high bidder on a stud dog currently on OFA Preliminary evaluation PSLRA strongly urges you to wait to use this stud dog until OFA Final evaluations are complete as set forth in our code of ethics.
